1. UNIFORM CIVIL CODE (UCC) - GUJARAT BECOMES 2ND STATE

- Question: Which state became the second in India to implement UCC? Answer: Gujarat (Uttarakhand was the first).
- Full form: Uniform Civil Code - one common set of civil laws for every citizen, whatever their religion. Article 44, Directive Principles of State Policy (DPSP), Part IV (Articles 36-51).
- What it covers: (1) same laws for all irrespective of religion; (2) same divorce law; (3) same property inheritance process - no changes, so uniform across India.
- History: A common code earlier existed in Goa (taught as the 'Cornwallis Code' there); later it became UCC and was implemented in Uttarakhand (first state).
- Procedure: Bill passed by State Assembly > Governor > President > approval > law. President's assent is under Article 111. Bills directly related to the Constitution need the President's assent.
- Gujarat and Assam had both tabled bills. Gujarat has received assent from President Droupadi Murmu; Assam will be third (unless UP comes in between). Gujarat CM: Bhupendra Patel.
- Not applicable to SC/ST communities - they have their own rituals, languages, marriage and divorce patterns and are considered socially backward. This has nothing to do with reservation (Articles 15 and 16; states decide).
- Penalty: violating the law can mean up to 7 years' jail.

QUICK REVISION: UCC = Article 44, DPSP, Part IV (36-51) | 1st Uttarakhand, 2nd Gujarat, 3rd Assam | Assent Art. 111 by President Murmu | CM Bhupendra Patel | Not for SC/ST | Jail up to 7 yrs.
